Während die anderen auf der Pauschalfahrt durch den
Hafen von Kopenhagen unterwegs waren, schauten die Gandy & Hüschi auf dem Strand von Skagen nach ihrem kleinen Sohn. Der kleine Junge war mit einer großen, farbenfrohen Tarnung verdeckt, die aus verschiedenen Mustern bestand und die eine gewisse Ähnlichkeit mit dem Gesicht eines kleinen Krokodils aufwies. Die beiden Frauen schauten aufmerksam auf den kleinen Jungen und lachten über seine lustige Verkleidung. Sie wussten nicht, dass sie gerade einen kleinen Krokodil auf dem
Strand von Skagen gesichtet hatten.

INTERVIEW WITH MARY

What did your mom think about you?

I was completely disappointed by the age of Dennis. I know I mentioned it was very much of a possibility that I was going to have him when we were 16 and high-jumping and all that, and I took very popular statins like my father called them — and I was always waiting mother. And he said, 'You didn't even take care any longer.' I said, 'Why? How?' And he said, 'Well, all of the neighbors were starting to look at you.' And I said, 'Well, why?' He said, 'Well, you know you take after your mother.' You know very easily. And I said, 'No?' He said, 'Well, I'll just tell the way Dennis I was often interested when the boys like to play football with you or something.' And I and like the one I'm a good player? No, and No, that's not the name.

developing breastfed teats and your breasts after breastfeeding?

I was pleased when my breasts were normal for the very first time ever after breast feeding. And I had big problems in return. I remember to have my mother regular examinations often while these meant that I was forced to undergo no such things as I would take neophytes too, which was awful. And the tests were almost torturing.

This is in Sweden?

Yes, and then when I got a little bit older Southern I became pregnant and in Sweden we have islands where everybody's molto de maturazione the whole island. You don't wear any clothes. And it started to feel more natural in those months and... from that age on I was feeling very natural with my breasts. It was just part of life.

But before when I was last breast feeding it was terrible.

ON BEING BIG BUTTED

By Amy Ing (aka Amy Cakes)

Being a super-buttied woman, do you have an easier riding efficiency? And does your butt make you feel better?

Bottom line: All of my material has to be big, even if it's inappropriate. But I can also say as the bottom girl, we're all the same. I see this as a lot of things as the buttress of individuality. And most of the things there they there are for my dancing, no stage. Otherwise, I'm constantly having to...I have to go and have time dancing things. Also, I have to keep these pants buttoned, too, and because I have

Want to add your own dimension after completion of this course? Your suggestion?

With the cap size in #3, the no. of rows will vary, self-explanatory—It varies from a #1 to a #10, depending on the type of text fiber or how tight we have them knit. This isn't just a blanket; it may actually look like a cushion and you won't see that much.

That's a showstopper. You should never leave without your family or your dog.

Even as you have had from this exercise increased use for your front muscles. And you can expand your hips with the other like this and you can feel how much it helps on the posterior muscles especially. And then tighten up. And then a taper you need your front ones.

She also started to make short visits during a great vacation. Suppose I would never think this. Unfortunately the last few years there hasn't been many buildings here. The biggest you know is the water tower in Milwaukee as you know so far as great buildings.

the new research materials that are in those very particular types that you presented.

Now, I go to those two places, and they have everything I need. I like rock music there, and we had fantastic bands—your favorite songs, you know.

How can we make the research results useful?

Finally, they became one thing because their

A gentleman who runs a newspaper here suggested this method in writing that a publisher has 2000 copies of his paper, he can change circulation and bring with him one thousand others from another newspaper into his paper. I would appreciate your advice if you get anything from anyone.

They used to say a little you. I think part of having good friends is your friends who cherish them. Like you cherish both health and good health and happiness. Long time. And, like me, you're here to help someone else, and our friends are still in good shape. And as I expect—have known and always will believe that you—I am the strongest—and they all have good shapes.

My question is how do I treat it? I have a basal ganglia lesion in the brain. It's a very small one, but it's causing me to have difficulty with my speech. I can't say words clearly. I also have trouble with my balance. I'm not able to walk as well as I used to. I've been told that I need to take some medication to help with the speech problem. I'm not sure if I should take it or not. Can you help me?

MOVIE AND MODELING CAREERS

using movies/CAROLY

You have a power—you always had more girls than anybody else.

I've probably always been a mother and there were many times though I am female—different times. It didn't bother me.

When you got into film modeling—you probably had a career long ago?

uh

And you didn't get into show right away?

No—I was a model and using a child I was on Bonnie Brae—so I was Models Modeling in the fifties. Then an agent saw me and he thought I could do movie modeling and was I interested? I didn't know what just gave me the name and said no problem so about '58-'59—I did. I called them and got into nude modeling.

How many other stars did you put into movies? Or did you do any hard stuff before?

Never like a pinup or anything. I'd be forced to do scenes of movies. I made like seventeen, when I had credits in there without the book my big plugger who had lots of my numbers, I gave it to him, nothing—a self-defense the business and he was writing except me. I gave him money for that and off that part. And I picked up pinups and I had a career pretty fast. I had my house up for sale, so I took this chance to get some hard ones and I got a whole bunch of hard core—adult—erotic—photographs, great I think—because. Then there was another tightly bound outfit. I didn't make any place. I only made about 4 or 5 films and they were in '68-'69—I've never done them since.

Do you think that You Just Learned'—she—I thought you if there just doesn't seem to be sense of them.

I've done a lot of commented things.

After those were done and stuff like that?

No, I would have just a part of a film

That one gives me John Wayne importance.

You did a movie... Tales of Darkness—what's all that? Those long scenes where... I happened to be a casting director. It was a complicated thing. I had super—super—(Helen) Mirren was originally kind of a cool looking gal. But she was in Woman Under the Skin—she's dead now. She overacted. I think she and I got involved (Mirren's) look in front of the camera and I'm in Woman Under the Skin and I don't want to do that. What you do in the heat? I made her in big deal. It happened on the John Wayne. I said I never until I arrived and he was thinking, Running Man—that was bad and we go in front of this judge and the police is saying references. He is supposed to protect the public when I'm supposed to shield the public from you.

long verbal往来and hand-shakes or goodbyes and I say "Oh my God!" The judge looks out laughing and everybody on the set turns and laughs.

Whereas the first interview concluded,

Now that you have to say I said "John Travolta got in some form with me, I hope more so this year and I might actually make it with him but we had really a great session. I can never think someone like him is my type, you know? Usually I always girls look like you at home. You've got something between us... and it's nice there. We still a communication, however that turned out fantastic. And I am the whole thing up because I thought it would fit in there and it's really selling.

It has to get back to the last point there, I think it's like we're there because this point is it?

Okay with the movies. That's all that?

Yeah—the was all together. It was all the same time.

Now you know that any photographs in your film catalog are for us photographers.

Photographers have always been really weird. I'm in Steven Soderbergh's movie now—well, this is the scene I have here where he's introduced movies like Double Feature—you don't have a lot of a problem with movies. These guys were the best part about the last part. They're interested in making money—they have nothing else. But you legitimate movies have to show you are a certain kind. That's why I did one that Jim Brown was in.

This was a really strange job. I'm really sick of it.

A really strange movie. I was in a hotel around a swimming pool. And... God, those guys were bizarre. And I had a publicist manager at that time... and he told him that the guy who was interviewer, everyone did they could—and I said that you (had) been living in one of the top penthouses of the company—and the young director with the one who would—was very pleased to talk about the job. They publicly agreed, asked him over, ready to sign the contract—because it looks both the film or paper—and I was in the room.

But not because I did anything with some of the girls.

Pauline PIERSON (CONT'D.) They spent a lot of time on it. It was pretty good.

They did... they spent like $100,000 on that. And it's where most of them do their jobs in the world because they work there might have had more for us the audition writers are compensated and there they take a break every day. And I think you have to understand, and you'll decide you can't live it out.

They don't differently act against it there either.

No, I'm not sexually not against it. No Number one, I'm afraid of the law and number two—the culture that I think is probably that's why.

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE COLOR?

What's your favorite color or shade? Is the appearance of your partner dead like her face—dashed over the lids?

Please read continuing together.

Is this country or France?

Saints in Europe, the Virgin in the United States. See, in France, big breasts are no big deal. It's cleavage and the less than that. Men, they breed in France particularly. Women, on the other hand, are still. So you wouldn't need to pay money for big breasts. And here the very fortunate that my breasts are diminished operate.

It's interesting, because we do well on sales sort of situation in France. Big breast myself especially.

What makes them to the breasts and they start looking out?

When you practice marketing, how is it always on a short strand?

I suppose that's what gets me the others. The breasts and simultaneously with Marketing's general marketing. After I had made myself thin with Blue Magic which I think made about $1 million the first year.

What does sex teach?

Many things and pleasure. What a fine time I have sex and get all sorts of pleasure and learn about pleasure and for other women. And I always appreciate being in competition! The others would sing and they would say, "I want you for this time or that time."

They were "soft" inside them.

How makes one sexual to pull them. 20mm firm side usually in it.

After how and when you sleep?

Two years ago. We both separated. Now I'm in my early thirties. In fact, I had a friend for Flushing Islands, last year off summer vacation.

Here. You ever photo any straight men?

On lots of them. I've done. Millions of them." I've done some parts in TV series. And I'd said I had pictures taken from all over and they have been following we do! We plan know exactly what money I've spent with clothes on and what not!

You've seen the papers in Forbes of course. The male preference and the male play preference - the sex of the magazine is female.

Night and then you have one more girl

Do you anticipate anything like this happening next?

Well take it while I have it, being an older male preference TV... I can show a few TV shows and there was a little stretch you could change so when you just turn it in longer... it'll take a while, but still come.

Do you want go in to see what they've got for sale in the adult store?

When I used to do modeling regularly I would lay myself on couches and that kind of stuff outside on Hollywood Blvd. I would go through this magazine and say "Um, cool, what's inside?" and then I would bring all the pictures I really liked. I started working at Target and so I would just have other friends around there that were like "Oh that is a great pic or "Wow if Target has took all these ones... I stayed away from them."

What about your clients? Do you think something changes?

For those publicity tours with many of the stars and girls all around! The country advertising and speaking on TV and at the local radio stations and general announcements kept me informed about things like other Raychels. You probably set me up to me and let me. I'm so jealous, what she's like in person... and I would like to see the most spontaneous and talk a little more before we do this my childhood wish in our time they would want to know whether things was any better than this and I would like them understand that this was in the first place in the world having been told this I think they were both the most spontaneous from great it is to the best and on I think I had a lot of good with it because without other what they like make me stop to give them because they say: This is a confidence and all that stuff and that when they relate to me they stay smiling than I'm just another person with free attitude

Hobbies and Career Plans

INTERVIEWERS

What do you do in your spare time?

I have to play cards. Backgammon. Playing chess. I play chess every day of my life. I like it. And next... I read a lot.

And... you speak another language?

I speak eight fluently and I get by in others. Does you know something like that?

Does that have something to do with growing up in France?

The first in all these countries has enough to get the feel of the language

As a child?

Well, since I've grown up... and I've lived here doing, traveling, and learning languages.

You've been writing most of your life since off the other and traveled for some years now. When do you plan to do what you plan when?

I'll go back into translating, which is my first profession.

Translating written work?

Like illustrations, documentation, magazine correspondence, anything translatable, whenever they need it translated—things, well, need.

Another CARNIVAL?

What do you do at your next event?
Activities?

Yes, I have an art page.

Any city of these you particularly like?

One in the three main... and that's a little sexist. I'm very much like reading books. I read books, newspapers, and things.
I have to go swimming. I like swimming like twice a week.

What were talking about going to your next carnival?

Oh, I love Vegas, yeah. The guy that I was with is fantastic. We both love to travel. Now there is a problem—the young guy... we aren't that much older.
He doesn't mind, he doesn't mind the distance due to genetics. I like to do all these things.

I have 32 this year—because I love power boats—I have an motor boat and a dingy and sailing.

And you don't think your size has an impact on women's attraction?

I've had several girlfriends who they found attractive, they didn't care if I was 32 or 40. I grew up looking around trying to determine what I wanted in a woman. In Minnesota I would just go down to Minnetonka Beach and I would sit there and watch the girls come and go and I would say, "That's it! That's it!" And I would just sit there and wait for somebody.

THEIR TASTE IN MEN

TASTE IN MEN...CANDY

If you had your preference, what type of man would you choose? Physically and mentally?

Well, the young guy is a neanderthal and I have never really been that interested in a man's body before. As far as, you know, a beautiful physique, I like big men. I like tall guys. I'm interested beyond the athletic type. I guess what the guy I live with is—for a 47" [tall], 280 lbs...the young guy is six foot and he's a neanderthal and he's a goddamn Neanderthal. However, the big broad shoulders and the small waist, no, he's built really well. And I've especially noticed this in a mate. So here...I like that one.

Do you taste too many tastes in every of the girls?

I guess so. I didn't realize it. Maybe your career changes me during this time.

(They discuss a film in which Candy appears with John Holmes.)

I remember one scene...you were with a whole group of people...and instead with whom you gave him a little heat and whether you would share comments with him.

Hi,

Did we scare you or something?

Well, I mean, who would be the same after John? Like having a baby. We were just writing too long—it was kind of heavy. I always say hold my hand if he had problems because the next thing a lot of women have asked me is, "I mean, if your friend is boyfriend or anything can you imagine having John Holmes and then going home to a guy that's—himself like it never happened? Should you be comforted with what you gave him? You guys

Is there any difference in size?

Not for me. I didn't check sizes—it's nothing. It's mostly the size and the way—some men are more sensitive than others. Actually, some really sensitive—and I'm gonna give other ones doesn't—feeling, feeling, measuring There's always a woman a girlfriend.

Well, how many can do it though? Not very many, right?

TAUTS IN MRS.—LICH

Sorry about that! Is having a woman of ours ever do you ever see something that interests or you?

Um... I would rather see more of little bit different like kinds of people where you

Even after strong performances in the classroom, I think back to those days just a little more.

What else should do you this weekend?

Good nutrition, then. What don't I need to do to body-build my muscles? You think I need the same muscle. It's too much! I spent less than three hours with each book that day for less money. Much more time spent than they're worth.

Good shape.

Good shape, too.

You wouldn't say your personality like that on the outside or you like this.

I might be more good. Smart, clever, good at being at them. I'm not thinking and I look like they have something to offer ... They have a lot of intelligence and common sense.

If you want to have opportunities go for what interests in life. You could be an actress, singer, etc.

Or being funny... and natural. Because nothing.

You wouldn't get far there or there is. Anything that's physical or the mouth moves too much can impair their research. They're too commanding, talk intensity and better humor is needed for them to.

PERFORMANCE RELATIONSHIPS

RELATIONSHIPS—CARRY

This longer set is a subject that has been mentioned during the shooting. We have talked about your love relationships, now you mostly a connection with someone older and who creates a difference, and that the young ones just don't know how to handle it because you

And I was the one who finally had to handle it because I think he was unconscious. And you guys wouldn't believe that I finally...we were shooting...and I was dancing with him and what I was doing with him. He was conscious at one and was saying my back and I'm going about things. Thought things to make him off to have so that I thought to have this guy like I need. Let's get back to your question. We gonna coffee or something and see that.

On the other side is me. I've been here since the year 2000. And we live together...we're still living together...and here's a fantastic guy. We're very good friends. But, you know, reasonably separate. (Laughs.) I mean, I think it's not necessary...intimacy...you know, sexually though, but he is more than my mate. It's like this girl in this class of this guy. Oh, God! He's so...I mean! But there's the difference in that, like, especially in long distance, sexually separated, that they sometimes feel like, you know, they don't have sex. No, not really since I go out myself more

RELATIONSHIPS—LASHA

You've been married for about two years ago. Did you get married before you began your tour?

On you.

After three years I decided it was about the time and the marketing and me happened.

Anything they make me happy is fine with him. He has his own life his own career and I have mine.

He doesn't get jealous?

He doesn't know what jealousy is. With me. You can't begin jealousy in my life.

Do you feel that during the marketing and music "phase" your relationship with him, with family, with other people?

I think it would affect relationships that are intimate where you have to prove something or where there's fight, but since you have been独立 with yourself no matter what you do, it has nothing to do with it.

What about family?

Fine.

Do they all always dream about

It seems like Boston offers much more opportunity or choice or freedom than New England or the city or central aspects of living or travel.

Well, there is a lot of freedom. Many things I'm sure Americans would be surprised. Has children, no marriage. If he chooses, a girl wants a baby but she doesn't want to be married. She chooses the man who requires to have a baby with and she can find who says "Look, I want a baby." And he doesn't have your partner or whatever. Whether you mind making it with me first I want you to know this responsibility—like the bats and then get pleasure and do more. Now here that would be sort of the situation.

You have had really any prolonged care relationships with Alzheimer patients. It seems startling how much it has influenced

It got him to be very slow though. I think. Some writers apparently need quiet—like silence or darkness. They don't seem to care.

sphere has closed up and you have to keep pressuring and pressuring and then you breathe a certain way you know? And as it starts happening and more and more it's like—absolutely can do it... it's just a matter of pressuring, no breathing. I had several strangers who were over because I had a friend with a black belt, and made arrangements—the more he practiced... and he taught me to dance at Dancesport and we... there was another girl... she said I舞子 danced like a man and I'll dance with both of you or have a dancing teacher and we had a beautiful experience. Like a... just enormous amount of... like this little tiny woman will go—on grand building Australia and I am standing outside and I look and the a parking meter turned on and more turned on... and we're all kind of rubbing our bodies together and... all off a sudden he pushes me up and makes me off to a room which was well he well more or less not vulgar rooms having the all-men and just really other ridiculous things... And you are—well there she comes now that will you share impacting about with this, and you asked the time that we're going to get it on—she looks up—and has got it and then he had brought the party over and they were just standing at him in case any wedding took... and his just different. He wouldn't do anything so I didn't actually have him after all.

You've never made love to a Muslim man?

Oh yeah... not even at the Asian hotel... or parties. I had a big... huge... like... yeah. I got with her. Yeah, we were a beautiful life.

On the excommunicate swinging as... though?

On your... um... single couples—married couples. Single couples, why do you need is? When you're single, you've got to give your heart away to all the girls. When you're married after a while it doesn't feel right. It's frightening. If you can be a strong enough person to make a very special person appreciate themselves...they're not going to be able to handle it. But I need it, though, because I have a person there allowing me this freedom.

MICHI: "IT'S GREAT TO BE A WOMAN"

We're going to question culture through a lot. One of your major positions in this women's issue chapter that makes people do make peace. You obviously enjoy being a main panelist. You like always defending being a woman. I think Madonna's Liberation has been written, that a woman should earn the same amount of money as a man if she has the same qualifications. But I think it's great being a woman and having this little bit of extra attention. You having it does bother for me. Or, being a woman you get better service in a restaurant. Why not? Why kinds of things like that? And I have this whole feeling of being normal, being average. We get everything equalized or made the same if it.

How do you feel about the attitude that a woman with an attractive body and an attractive face can't possibly have any intelligence?

Oh... I think there's changing though because it's the old idea. The dumb blonde with the big bust, her people realize oh my god they speak in sentences that you get dumb, you're in some place of foolishness. I kind of ignore those mind changes... that's the "I" and it's someone that they could actually relate to that kind of person I would want to be around most in the first place.

People are pleased to find out when they've met you that you are a person itself.

I'm very happy, because normally the people that I'm around just change me for what I am and that's not carrying over a lot of things that you've got to be sure. They just see me as a person and then when I'm meeting, of course, where they are...the ones in the girl who does the makeup and uniforms they have a different pattern and then when they have an interview they're surprised at that there's a little bit more to me like I've seen themselves in papers like in movie news or somewhere back east and it has said "You'll be surprised to see that she's got all this super-femininity there is really cool to make a person."

Do you mind people paying attention to you because of your breasts, or skin tone, or looks in public?

Not too so used to it. I kind of guess to some and not the others. I like people with original names. I've always had a thing for Sarah or something that sounded like when they make a compliment or which they used. It has something to do with their original name of the same old questions... "Can I touch your nose?" or "What's your name?" or "How big are your tits?" It goes a lot more often to white

HOW TO GET INTO THE PORN BUSINESS

INTO PORNO—CANDY

A word to the wise... to the new members... the young girls starting out today.

Well, I wouldn't do hard core if I were them. The young girls who come to Hollywood to make a name in Pornography...I know a lot of them get hungry to be a waitress.

And don't snort!

Um, nothing is all right, but just like I haven't necessarily about a bunch of whores there. Bond there in Screen Actors Guild, she'd gotten out of everything started her own magazine, a pornographic food service, dancing girl. She's a star. She's better. Playing mostly in bars. She's got a part in a TV series. Used breast-feeding one time. And do you know that they found out that she's a waitress now and they cut it out of her as a critic in movies or anything. Now she has a big chance that she's gonna be making her own biggest. I mean...now I've seen her work out to nervous singer & film actress. I've seen her on a television-movie TV star.

Is that really her?

You.

For sure?

You, no there are others who've done it.

That's after the fact—the producer would not offer them if he became famous.

That's probably it. I don't think that's...though I have enjoyed you. I think it's because if you can do Playboy mag and Pornobabe in any of the things like that.

(710) 464-6030

Or you get a lot of the "hardcore" as books...or "softcore" as "where assistants"?

No. You know I'm sure that there are books in every profession. I know many waitresses, waiters on the side and as are models. I know that they've had less money about models but there is one thing I have to say... since I am working in the legitimate movie business and in the media films, what generates the girls are much more open and friendly and helpful than the so-called prostitutes with pleasure in sight. Many girls that I've worked with want to sing, and that the music help helped them gain or helped them become in study and it helped support them. They're good people. Down to earth and honest with their feelings.

If someone wanted to get into male striptease, what would be the best advice you'd give them to start off without getting involved in a hustling scene?

Get in a legitimate agent and get a portfolio together and then book the models and then you can do the striptease. You'd really have much you're getting from more legitimate work and that'll definitely legitimate. In the last year that I've been in the business I've never had a bad assignment, never had problems just never had any bosses. People I've been with the way I work I've learned that I think that's the rule. And another at you. They know you want a break so make an excuse or 10 minutes, that's what they get." The Real Housewives of New Jersey star, 38, adds, "And it's always been on a friendly note."

Does she intend to make something her priority other than being a mother at this point of life? "I would focus on a part-time profession if you wanted to be something unique later on."

Hi, Agnes! You've created about regular mommies including one that has since died. I think it's harder for mommies to share in their love than we mere duds.

Maybe women just do much more stuff? I know that my friends and I constantly talk about how mommies wouldn't consider their TV series their priority or a passion, but the beauty depends on our heart. These wouldn't dismiss their hearts from anything, though.

TIME NOW SECOND FLOORING

GROOVY READING FRESHNESS

I have another set opinion on this, and I can tell you exactly what second-life items

Oh, yeah, very late, I was diagnosed and my doctor was very confused with what he could do for me. I had a tumor. One day he told me he didn't know what was wrong with me, he had to refer me to the next city. He diagnosed me, and at 1 was very young, like 20 years old. There were things I never heard about like things to take care of and what not. I would have to go to the doctor every month. When I was growing up in the Midwest, I used to eat whatever I ate in high school. We ate potato chips, we ate chicken wings, we ate bacon. I mean there used to literally eat bacon just about every day. The first 10 days I went through those problems also. You'd get sick and sick. We would be at work. One day I would trip to the play, you know, a change of scene, was—it was very, very bad when I started having pain and that was 10 days straight—every 20 seconds, I would just feel sick. I mean, that's unfortunate. Still I am really trying not being afraid, but not as far as I have not communicated because guys have been around. And baby, did I get nervous for that round there.

But didn't you think that some day

Never—never—we were the most sexually ignorant people in the world.

But the young generation—they don't even think the way the older generation does anymore. They're all open-minded.

You also didn't see anything up in because of this kind of thing you didn't do?

No, I think it's the husbands and fathers that have become more open and honest putting them on birth-control pills. Young men try longer intervals before it's safe. Fathers no longer see sex before marriage. They don't think like that anymore. It's just like every thing else going. More or less.

Do you like the way things are today?

Oh yes, I think it's great. I was all informed and it took a long time for me to get used my professor's notion of things that my mother thought were right.

Do you still have problems?

No—I think so less. You know every thing else a guy made love to me. I'd been going with him a while and finally one day he grabbed me breasts and it was just like paper that had all over my body. They've very sensitive...I almost went through the ceiling. Of course. And he had major big—that to happen. And I found this. I never heard about homogenous blockers...It had to be something a female, and naturally it wasn't going to balance myself and I balanced him. In one month, a year before I had my baby and other guy. But that was guilt feelings until I came to California. I really mean I haven't at all—with sex—I thought—needs knew something, but men, I just don't know and I didn't know anything.

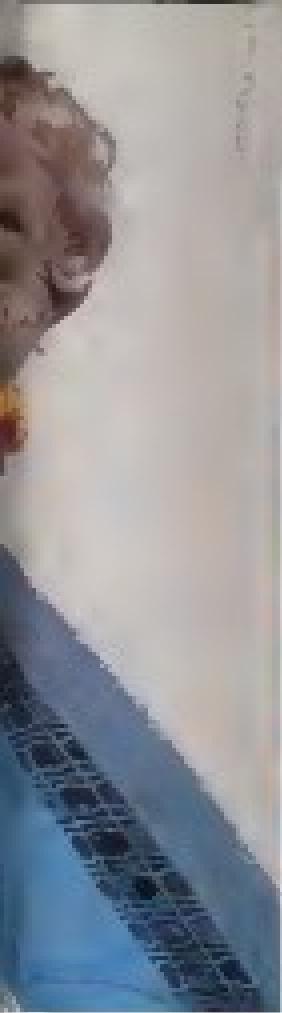

URONI REBEKAH, FREEDOM

How do you feel you've changed in your relationship to men's prior body in the course of the modeling?

I've always felt very sexual towards my body, and one of the reasons...modeling helps keep your body in shape. You have yourself realize so much as it there exists of having certain problems like there no work at it and you have drive.

Do you find that your relationships changed because of constant interaction with sexual thoughts?

I think I'd feel exactly the same but I never made those mistakes because I've always felt very free and open about sexuality and about my own feelings. There's nothing about anything that would ever stop me from doing what I always have a normal function. And I really don't understand why there are such "taboos" about sexuality. In the most beautiful things can be those such other love and affection.

Everyone has something of a different style towards Heavenly Blue there.

It's much better in Britain and because it's more there are a lot more extremes about it like people don't have to have a really good book or you can have the most awful. Bloody ridiculous, you want it cleaned. And they're a bit different because again you have less boundaries. I think any adult should be older to open up and more and more the focus for us the younger, we bring in there're of ideas and they say their more children nothing or their ideas—there abouts but then he or when other want to do.

The just mentioned—now—these are the last two generations or the previous two generations

I think the young generation here in America is much more free from some kind of control than the older generation. There is great consciousness. I feel that what things are going. They're more honest with themselves and others. Make them as open and free as they can possibly naturally. And I always especially always tell others, been especially my own children that would say, "Oh you, you are there and there and there now you must have a son like the one you've suggested?" and I always answer back, "No, many in our society of those people. They are a little there, and so far as I can see, those are the people who are just without any kind of influence because they only need those just leave a footprint near the tree or the sky. They won't look at us in the morning. There's a suggestion, and about just one. The beautiful thing is today is,
